

Get long term value from your conference

Conference Impact

Our Conference Impact package will ensure you deliver a high impact conference with long lasting value for participants and your organisation.

CREATE STRONG TAKE HOME VALUE & DRIVE REAL ORGANISATIONAL CHANGE

There's a lot at stake in planning an effective conference. It involves a huge investment by your organisation – in dollars and time spent away from people's jobs. A conference that fails to create an enduring outcome is a massive opportunity lost.

It's vital that your conference delivers outcomes that align with your organisation's objectives, with results that last long after the conference is over.

FAST Meetings can design and facilitate engaging and productive conference programs that:

- ▶ Deliver targeted content through innovative sessions
- ▶ Facilitate more participation, energy and engagement of delegates
- ▶ Stimulate connections, interaction and cross-pollination of ideas between delegates
- ▶ Generate commitment from participants to support your organisation's strategies and objectives
- ▶ Identify take home value and concrete actions for delegates and your organisation.

WHO IS THIS FOR?

Conference Impact is designed for those who have responsibility for designing and delivering a successful conference on behalf of their organisation.

"The facilitation of our conference made for a most engaging and effective off-site experience. The key themes of personal responsibility and support were clearly conveyed. All staff went back to the office individually motivated while feeling part of a much larger team."

Ed Goff,
General Manager, Victoria Vodafone

"Our investment in FAST Meetings services has been extremely worthwhile. This year's Conference was our best ever. We attracted record numbers of delegates across the broader profile we were targeting and 97% of responding delegates said next years conference would be a priority for them or their organisation."
